K-2 Passport to Summer Learning

Long-Term Assignment

Your completed Passport for Summer Learning is due to your new teacher no later than Friday, August 16th!

Your goal is to complete a minimum of 15 activities in one week. Please check off each activity you complete daily. Clever is used to access Lexia, Dreambox, and AR. In Dreambox, select the "Long-Term Assignment" icon to work on the specific skills and lessons needed to support your learning next school year. As you read books this summer and take AR tests, please record them in your summer reading log.

K-2 Passport to Summer Learning - Reading Log

Due Date: August 16, 2023

Manatees, where will your summer reading adventures take you?

Maybe you'll read your favorite book in a beach chair while the water dances on your toes! Maybe you'll read by the light of a campfire! Maybe, you'll just make a tent with your bedsheets and read under the covers with a flashlight! Wherever you decide to do your summer reading, we want you to ENJOY it! As you explore new books this summer, consider selecting titles from the Sunshine State Young Readers Award Junior booklist. If you can meet the goals noted below, you will be invited to one of Otis A. Mason's Passport Parties! 1st and 2nd graders, please remember to log in to your Clever account to take your AR Tests!

Passport to Summer Learning Reading Goals:

1) Read at least 10 books.

2) Pass your AR test with a score of 80% or higher!

3) Keep track of your reading using the reading log below.

SSYRA Jr. 2024-2025 Annotated List

Mr. S: A First Day of School Book written and illustrated by Monica Arnaldo

Prepare for plenty of giggles as a kindergarten class arrives for their first day of school, but can't find their teacher--only a delicious-looking sandwich and the words "Mr. S" scribbled on the chalkboard. Chaos ensues as the kids argue whether or not the sandwich must be their teacher.

Henry Like Always written by Jenn Bailey and illustrated by Mika Song

Henry likes Classroom Ten. He likes how it is always the same. But this week, Henry's class will have a parade, and a parade means having Share Time on the wrong day. A parade means playing instruments that are too loud. A parade means this week is not like always.

The Greatest in the World written and illustrated by Ben Clanton

Rot is a mutant potato who wakes up feeling great, maybe even...the greatest in the world! But that only makes Rot's brother Snot the grumpiest in the world. The only solution? An epic contest to prove who is the greatest once and for all, judged by the only impartial party they can find--their small fry little sister, Tot.

Evergreen written and illustrated by Matthew Cordell

Evergreen the squirrel is afraid of many things: thunder, hawks, and the dark paths of Buckthorn Forest. But when her mother tasks Evergreen with delivering soup to her sick Granny Oak, the little squirrel must face her fears and make the journey.

Our Incredible Library written by Caroline Crowe and illustrated by John Joseph

This is the story of one incredible library book and all the children who've borrowed it. It's been hugged, lost, torn, chewed by a dog and soaked in the rain. It's been read in apartments and in tents, in the park and in the classroom; by children in costumes and pajamas, reading alone or with their friends, their siblings and their parents.

Carina Felina written by Carmen Deedy and illustrated by Henry Cole

Carina Felina is an arrogant cat with an appetite so huge that she eats everything and everyone who crosses her path as she ambles through Havana--until a small crab outsmarts her and saves the day.

Rick the Rock of Room 214 written by Julie Falatko and illustrated by Ruth Chan

Tired of sitting all day on the Nature Finds shelf in Room 214, a rock named Rick escapes the classroom for the great outdoors, only to discover that sometimes the greatest adventure in life is friendship.

My Pet Feet written by Josh Funk and illustrated by Billy Yong

After awakening to find that his pet ferret is now pet feet, a budding detective discovers that the letter "R" has disappeared and its absence is causing chaos throughout his town.

Got Your Nose! written by Alan Katz and illustrated by Alex Willan

When Grandpa Max plays his favorite prank on Becky, he accidentally takes her nose for real, and the two must chase Becky's nose all over town to get it back.

The Duck Never Blinks written and illustrated by Alex Latimer

Can you make a duck blink? Probably not. But you can try, in this irreverent and hilarious staring contest between you and a duck that never, ever blinks.

Don't Eat Bees: Life Lessons from Chip the Dog written by Dev Petty and illustrated by Mike Boldt

Chip the dog shares the wisdom of his seven fruitful years of eating things he shouldn't.

Awesome Orange Birthday written by Mitali Ruths and illustrated by Aailya Jaleel

Priya Chakraborty plans a birthday party for her first client, Layla Aunty, personalizing everything from the invitations to the menu in Aunty's favorite color, but as party-time finally arrives, Priya is nervous something will go wrong.

We Are Going to Be Pals written and illustrated by Mark Teague

A talkative cattle egret explains to a rhinoceros that in addition to having a symbiotic relationship, they also have a friendship built on communication, kindness, and a respect for boundaries.

Out of the Blue written by Robert Tregoning and illustrated by Stef Murphy

In a world where only the color blue is allowed, a young boy and his father dare to defy the rules and create a place where every hue is welcome.

Worm and Caterpillar are Friends written and illustrated by Kaz Windness

A worm and a caterpillar are best friends and when one of them is about to go through a big change, they both learn what is inside is what counts.
